Chicano~Latino Histories

ASSIGNMENT SHEET:
Discuss Questions for The Latino Threat

The student will demonstrate knowledge of the forces, processes, and events shaping the historical lives of people of Latin American (outcome 1) as they apply their critical thinking skills in reading, comprehending, and interpreting historical sources (outcome 2).

Overview

Instead of writing our final book review assignment, on Tuesday, December 8th, we will conduct our final class meeting as a HISTORICAL SEMINAR. In this seminar, we will discuss—in detail and depth—the selected chapters in the book The Latino Threat, by Leo Chavez.

In preparation of this discussion, you must bring to class—PRINTED OUT and ready to turn in—a list of discussion questions which help us consider the above outcomes. Think about questions that inspire discussion, instead of just give us an opportunity to list off content from the book.

The entire assignment should fit on no more than one page.

Assessment

These questions will be graded and assessed by asking the following questions:

- Does the student help us evaluate the significance of historical sources?

The assignment is due (of course) in class, on December 8th.
